Now what has kept the South and West from uniting? Nothing more or less than the waiving of the bloody shirt for twenty-six years by such men as John J. Ingalis of Kansas and Hoar of Massachusetts. The West has gone on drawing their hundred millions in pensions, voting for high tariff and hating the South mergic bacuses some and hating the South merely because some bloody shirt politician told them they ought to. But while the South is not, the West is tired of it. The South has fought, bled and died together. Certainly after a fight of twenty-six years she should awaken to the conclusion that the Democratic party can never get permanent control of this govern-ment without a coalition with the honest reform people of the great West. Their interest and ours are the same. In this age of gold human nature is the same it was thousands of years ago. That Mr. Clevepeople so far as those ends are accomplished it alone can complete that work. It sometimes errs in its objects and methods, but it would be the saddest of all days for human kind on which discontent should be eliminated from the list of active forces or the "delegates of the discontented" should be made to hold their

Now, the people of Kansas and the West are all right. They wish now to unite with the South and bring about a thoroughly re-form administration. No doubt the third party is off in its sub-treasury bill; but the farmer asks this, "furnish us something better." Kansas has snowed under Ingulls and gone in for the relief of the people. They, with their short haired women may be cranks, but the correct definition of a crank is a person with an idea. The idea of more money and reform is correct. Now the Hon. Barney Gibbs is a thinker, he is progressive in thought and no doubt the leading commoner of the state at this time. Most of our ablest minds have been sold to reilroad attorneyships. In denouncing Governor Gibbs' bill and the sub-treasury why does not the Hon. Dave Culberson offer something better? Our people are crying to heaven for relief.

France. France is a most prosperous country, with a circulating medium of $50 per capita. Look at Texas with all its natural adventages, and not inaptly called the France of America, with a circulating medium of & per capita! Still the state bank-ers' convention had the gall a few days ago to pass resolutions declaring that the circulating medium was sufficient for all busi-

NEW YORK, June 2.-Rumors which were circulated yesterday affecting the standing of a London banking house were emphatic-ally denied by representatives of that house to-day. In consequence the London mar-kets were firmer. London operators bought St. Paul, Louisville and Nashville and Union Pacific. Consequently the stock market opened strong but soon reports of further gold engagements were circulated and prices fell off. London purchases were estimated at 20,000 shares. There was a good deal of favorable news from London.

A private cable stated that the bank of England had reduced its price for Ameri-can gold again, this time to 76 shillings 5 £473,000 of gold to-day.

Cables were received by a banking house to the effect that it is reported that the Bank of England will reduce its rate of discount to 4 per cent on Thursday. Joint stock banks have fixed the minimum rate of discount at 3% per cent, pending negotia-tions. This news is very important. Con-ferences to this end have been held for some days past. The decision is not final however. Still it is now believed that joint stock banks will maintain the rates. Our market became much stronger as this news came out and when it was known how small the gold orders were, prices advanced

The congress which adopted the declaration of independence was composed wholly of the delegates of the discontented, and so has been every other gathering of men which has instituted any of the great reforms of history. It is not a reproach to a man to be discontented The Hampdens, the Patrick Henrys, the Jeffersons, the Adamses, the Franklins and all the rest of liberty's lovers have been the discontented and it was their discontent that made them benefactors of mankind and the scourgers of wrong. Every man of honest mind is discontented with wrong, injustice and oppression, and is at war with those things, whether on his own account or in behalf of his fellowmen. Special to the Gazette. NEW YORK, June 2.-London was a heavy buyer of stock during the first two hours, and then the shorts put out recently began to cover, causing a sharp spurt in prices. The excharge market was strong, and bankers look for heavy gold exports during the week. Lazard Freres, who shipped $1,000,000 on the Lapin this morning, will not ship to-morrow or Thursday. Baring Magoun took $500,000, Van Hoffman $500. 000, and Heidelback, Icaelheimer & Co. $500,000 in gold coin from the sub-treasury for shipment to-morrow. A report pre-valled that part of the goldengagement had been cancelled, but this was incorrect. Nevertheless it we used for advancing the market in the afternoon. COTTON REPORT.

MORE MONEY.

Why Can't the State Issue Currency to Meet the Demand-Too Many Kickers, Too Few Suggesters.

FORT WORTH, TEX., June 9, 1891. Editor Gazette. I have a desire that is is irresistable to help our friend Barney Gibbs in the great cause he has espoused—that of contributing to the campaign education of the day. That to the campaign education of the day. That there is much presumption and some humor in this there is no doubt but, the writer belonging to the "kid element" of the South, wishes to ask you in behalf of the great struggling masses of the West and South to give space to a little thoughtful succetash. A terrible amount of kicking at this time is coming from our old friends, the war Democrats of the South against the Farmer's ocras of the South against the Farmer's Alliance and the third party. It reminds us very fercibly of Travis. Crockett and Bowie at the Alamo. Though Santa Anna had about fifty men to their one, says Travis: "We will never surrender!" While this was a fine exhibition of "grit." still, would not the better policy have been to have marched in the direction of the reto have marched in the direction of the reinforcements near by so as to have been able to make battle with some chances of victory? Now this was also true of the South during the late unpleasantness. Sam Houston said as the boys marched out of Independnce that we were outnumbered, that we tood no chance, that it was but a matter of time. True, the boys who wore the gray and bore the flag with the single star made the most gallant fight that will ever be known to history, but, of course, it was only a matter of time—they too were outnumbered more than fifty to one. But they were indeed a people, and to call them "the last of the Romans" would be a feeble tribute. They were truly "the admiration of two centinents and the wonder of the world." Analogous to these has been the fight of the Democracy for the past twenty-six years—a feeble band fighting without hope, but looking on the most stupendous, the most corrupt, the most gigantic class legislation that was ever known to a civil-ized people! Now times are changing and men are adapting themselves to them as best they can. Young men from the West and South are coming to the front and de-mand reforms. They are familiar with the past but following the dictates of new and progressive thought; burying dead issues, they wish to unite on a people's platform one broad and statesmanlike—one for pure and good government. No people than those of the West, know better that the those of the West, know better that the South fought for a principle guaranteed by the constitution—that while secession was impracticable and that while Mr. Lincoln said "Let the erring sisters depart in peace" that it was solely the cry of "Save the Union!" that defeated the South. No people know better than the young men of the West that the Southern people should have been paid for their slaves which were sold to them by the Yankee ships. While a thought right here might seem irrevelant.

a thought right here might seem irrevelant, I wish to say the like of the old time Southern gentleman will never be seen again. The true type was noble, honest, trustworthy, confiding and chivalrous to that degree that he, like the ancient Roman, would prefer death to dishonor and self-degredation. But the few who survived the late civil war are fast passing from this theater of action. Our country has become New Englandized and this designing conquest has been at work since the landing of the May Flower We have become tradesmen and hucksters and have no time to study the science of government. Very naturally our minds will become restricted, dwarfed and contracted like the down East Yankee. Broad tracted like the down East Yankee. Broad gauge statesmen like Henry Clay, the great
